BATTLE HYMN OF THE COOKS

(Tune: Battle Hymn of the Republic)

The Cooks have dwelt in England, Scotland, Ireland and in Wales;
Where English tongue is spoken now the name of Cook prevails.
How could the nations but progress when Good Cook never fails!
The clan goes marching on!

Chorus: Glory to our grand old family,
Virile, worthy, brave and loyal!
Glory, "Tu-tum mon-strat i-ter!"
The clan goes marching on!

The Cooks of York, Northumberland, Nor-folk, Bed-ford and Kent,
To deeds of valor and on missions of import were sent;
And when they pledged their honor everything they said they meant.
The clan goes marching on!

William, Ellis, Gregory, were fathers of our clan;
Posterity of Henry and Elijah never ran.
Mordecai was virile, Nathan' was a sturdy man.
The clan goes marching on!

Sir Samuel was Lord Mayor, Fred' was Chaplain to the Queen;
James Cook discovered islands which white men had never seen.
Cooks love Old Glory, Union Jack and "Wearin' of the Green!"
The clan goes marching on!

The Clan of Cook is mighty with two hundred thousand strong.
In Seventy-Six a thousand kinsmen fought to right a wrong.
Twenty towns now bear our name. Sure, let us sing that song—
The clan goes marching on!

The sons of Cook have courage any task or foe to face;
Our girls are true and lovely with their beauty, charm and grace;
The Good Cook leaven is a blessing to the human race!
The clan goes marching on!

"Cook Book" is fascinating! Man could live without his books,
But all the world would starve to death if it were not for Cooks.
We excel at cooking and are not surpassed in looks.
The clan goes marching on!

There's something strong and mighty in a good old family name;
The name of Cook shines very high upon the scroll of fame,
For those who bear the name of Cook pursue a lofty aim.
The clan goes marching on!

(A) INTRODUCTION

The Cook Family is among the forty-nine "best families" selected by the American Historical-Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past few years.

The Cook Family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the United States, its members having played important roles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Cooks have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

In references Nos. 3, 10, 7 and 14 we find the following regarding the origin and meaning of the name Cook:

The name of Cook was first used by those whose occupation corresponded with the name. In such days as those, with the number of personal retainers and the excess of hospitality expected of the feudal chief, the culinary department was a very significant part of the baronial establishment.

Our "Cooks" are relics of the old "le Coke," "le Cook" or "Cokeman." The Corpus Christi Play (York) styles them "Cukes"; the Norwich Play includes them among the "Vinters and Inkeapers."

The Anglo-Saxon form is "Cuc," "Cucca." "Coke" is one of the earliest forms, and in the Domesday Book there are several tenants styled "Cocus," and one "quidam Coquus Regis."

The following titled Cook families are listed in "BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY": Sir Samuel Cook, Lord Mayor of Dublin (knighted 1713); Bedfordshire; London; Midham, co. Norfolk; Doncaster, co. York; Northumberland and Yorkshire; Kingsthorp, co. Northants; Pittenweem, Scotland; Edinburgh, 1876; Captain Cook; Brooklands, Blackheath Park, co. Kent; Visit. London, 1568.

The data in this volume is gathered from reliable sources. We have selected what we consider the most important material. Many of the daughters, and sons for whom no issue was shown, have been omitted from the pedigrees. A missing symbol indicates that a name has been omitted. Those desiring further information are advised to consult the volumes mentioned in the list of References.

The compiler hopes that, in producing this volume, he is bringing to the Cook Family information which will be of interest and value to them, and that he is rendering an important service to the public. He and his associates will be glad to give their co-operation to members of the family who are interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published.

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are children of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding numbers. All persons in each group bearing the same letter as a part of their numbers are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows. However, some of our material is published as copied from various records without rearrangement according to this system.

(B) THE COOK COAT OF ARMS

A Coat of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Cook Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is the Arms of the Cooks of Northumberland and Yorkshire; Doncaster, co. York (without crest or motto) and, with slight variations, of other lines of the name. It is also used by the Cookes of Wheatley, Baronets, and by the Cookes of Owston, co. York. Numerous other branches of the Cook family use Coats of Arms similar to it.

This is the most widely used of all Cook Coats of Arms and has been in existence for many centuries. It is described in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE'S LANDED GENTRY, BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations. It has been used for generations by many American branches of the Cook family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms .....	Or, a chevron gules between two lions passant, regardant, sable.	A golden shield bearing two black lions, walking and looking back, separated by a red chevron.
Crest .....	Out of a mural coronet argent, a demi-lion rampant sable, gorged with a ducal coronet or.	A black half-lion, collared with a golden ducal coronet, rising from a mural coronet of silver.
Motto .....	Tutum monstrat iter (Latin)	He showeth a safe road.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said: "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families"

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the Cook family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms, in proper colors.

DANIEL POPE: Lawyer; b., Scott Co., Ky., 1795; began practice of law in Kaskaskia, Ill., 1815; first Attorney-General of Illinois; Judge of circuit court in western circuit and several times a mem. of Congress. Cook County, Ill., was named in his honor.

GEORGE HAMMELL: Geologist; b., Hanover, N. J., 1889; grad., Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., 1839, where he was later professor, and, 1864, vice president; state geologist of N. J., and mem. of various scientific societies.

BRIG.-GEN. HENRY F.: Soldier; a native of Mississippi; killed in battle at Briston Station, Va., 1863; distinguished himself in war with Mexico, and fought gallantly with Confederates during Civil War.

MRS. HOSEA AND MRS. JESSE: Pioneers; of their early life nothing authentic is known. In 1792 they, with their husbands, were occupying two log cabins in the Innis settlement near Frankfort, Ky. In April of that year a band of Indians attacked the settlement, killed the husbands of the two women, and surrounded their barricaded home. But the intrepid widows, killing the savage chief, fought off his infuriated followers and ended the raid.

HON. JAMES MERRILL: Financier; b., Ballston, N. Y., 1807; mem. State Senate, 1848-51 and 1864-65; State Treasurer, 1851, and superintendent of the banking department of the state from 1856 till 1861.

There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "Cook." This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(L) COOK CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama .....	121	Maine .....	44	Oklahoma .....	37
Arizona .....	5	Maryland .....	142	Oregon .....	30
Arkansas .....		Massachusetts .....	881	Pennsylvania .....	666
California .....	538	Michigan .....	405	Rhode Island .....	75
Colorado .....	177	Minnesota .....	131	South Carolina .....	10
Connecticut .....	270	Mississippi .....	43	South Dakota .....	10
District of Columbia	127	Missouri .....	215	Tennessee .....	148
Delaware .....	35	Montana .....	35	Texas .....	342
Florida .....	45	Nebraska .....	80	Utah .....
Georgia .....	210	Nevada .....		Vermont .....	31
Idaho .....	67	New Hampshire .....	21	Virginia .....	76
Illinois .....	115	New Jersey .....	230	Washington .....	53
Indiana .....	294	New Mexico .....	13	West Virginia .....	43
Iowa .....	165	New York .....	798	Wisconsin .....	72
Kansas .....	83	North Carolina .....	36	Wyoming .....	17
Kentucky .....	139	North Dakota .....	7
Louisiana .....	51	Ohio .....	733	Total .....	7866

To secure an estimate of the "Cook population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

	(a) multiply by
Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted .....	2
Half of the Cooks reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us.....	2
There is an average of more than four persons in each American family.....	4
Since Cook daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Cook sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Cook (though it is much easier to locate the latter).....	2
By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of.....	32
Conservative estimate of the Cook population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Cook and one-half of whom bear other names.....	251,712

The estimated Cook population of any of the States may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. The Cook population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE COOKS

For several centuries the Cooks lived in England, North Ireland and Scotland. Most of the British (with the exception of those living in South Ireland), and, likewise, the Cooks were and are of the Protestant faith.

There are a few Cooks of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed five per cent. of the entire Cook population.

The Cooks who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Cooks in America who are church members, at least ninety-five per cent. are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of 37 Cooks appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: BAPTIST, 3; CONGREGATIONALIST, 1; EPISCOPAL, 1; METHODIST, 3; METHODIST EPISCOPAL, 2; PRESBYTERIAN, 3; ROMAN CATHOLIC, 1; OTHER PROTESTANTS, 2; RELIGION NOT STATED, 20.
